PAPYRUS 1956
PENDLETON HIGH SCHOOL
Pendleton Indiana

We returned to PHS in September with hopes and expectations for the coming year. We found the halls and classrooms crowded with new faces and our old friends. Midway through the year the construction of our new elementary building was started. The coming of winter brought parties, vacation, and semester exams. Then spring arrived and it was the end of another year. High spots of the year have been pictured in the following pages of this book.

CLASS PLAYS —

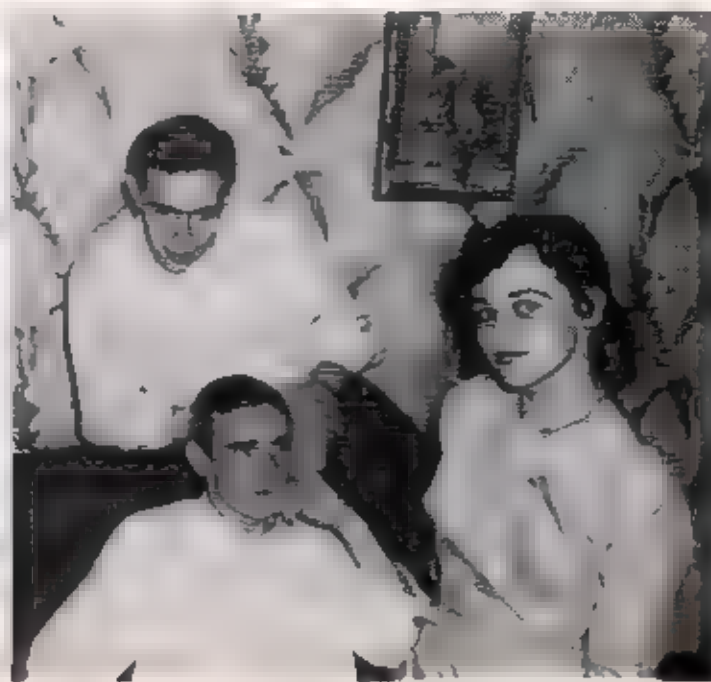

On the night of Friday, March 25, 1955 at 8.00 p.m., a full house saw the performance of the class of '56 in "We Shook the Family Tree."

A CHANCE TO BE IN FRONT OF FOOTLIGHTS AND BEHIND SCENES

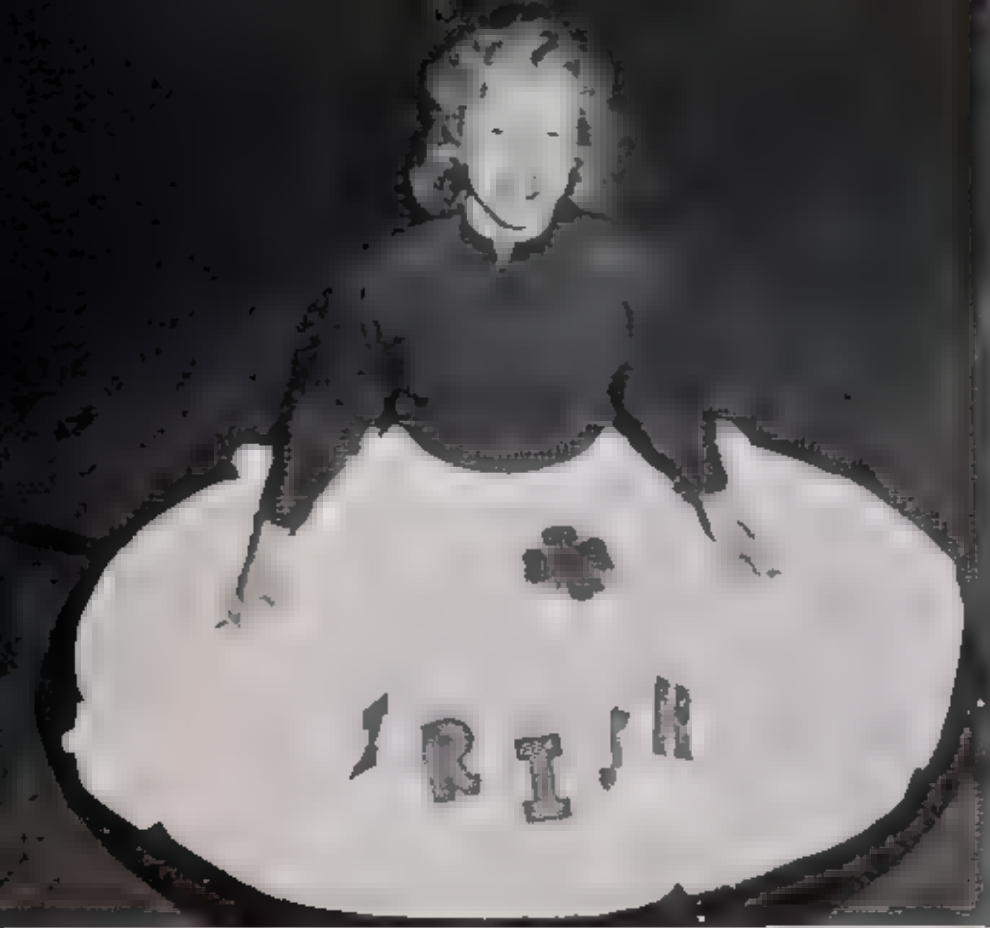

The Senior Class got a short taste of college life in the comedy "Bottoms Up" which was presented on Friday, October 21, 1955.

Our thanks to Mrs. Weaver for directing our Class Plays.

Darling! Your mascara is running

Our Mascot . . . Janie

Pep sessions, beanies, loud voices, and sore throats are signs of our strong school spirit which has prevailed through the work of the Cheerblock, Cheerleaders, and Mascot. A familiar sight at each home game was the juniors selling concessions. The evenings were completed by the teen dances sponsored by the P.T.A.

SCHOOL SPIRIT PREVAILS

I'll sure be glad when I'm a senior!

Dancing after the games . . . one-two three, one-two-three.

CHRISTMAS HAD A GLOW AND GLITTER OF ITS OWN

Armed with yellow passes and the holiday spirit, we abandoned study hall, and even a few classes, to deck the halls, paint windows, and prepare a program in honor of Christmas. Finally, vacation came and we enjoyed ice skating, parties, and relaxing for one blissful week.

Do we have to save the icicles?

I wasn't posing, honest!

How fortunate that Christmas comes only once a year. Oh! those calories.

INVITATIONAL TOURNEY AT P.H.S.

Lapel

The 20th Annual Tourney began with the usual excitement and anticipation. Four fighting teams came with the expectation of taking home the trophy. As the games progressed, it became evident that the Fighting Irish were determined to win. Even though the Lapel Bulldogs won the tourney in the final moments by a one point margin, the Fighting Irish of Pendleton High School won a greater victory by proving that, No Man Knows De-feat Who has Confidence In His Efforts.

AND THE NIGHT WAS FILLED WITH MUSIC

The Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Ball State Student Center, Muncie, on May 19, 1955. A pink Eiffel tower and fragrant spring flowers provided the setting for the spectacular and long awaited event of the year. Soft music and whirling couples against the background of the theme, "Springtime in Paris" made the event live long after the night turned into day.

"Now we will have the treasurer's report."

Winners in the contest sponsored by the Savings and Loan Association were Eleanor Miller, Sara Beth Younts, Toy Lane Loy, Janet Yancey, and Sondra Tuttle. Awards were presented by Mr. Heritage and Mr. Hammerling.

CLIMAX OF THE YEAR: AWARDS

AND GRADUATION

For the underclassmen spring brought only the end of another school year but for the Seniors it brought graduation. After sharing twelve years of classes, activities, exams, and the many events that make up school life, we learn for the first time what it really meant after the last diploma has been awarded and the commencement ceremonies have ended.

We're Juniors now . . . the magic of chemistry, shorthand, typing, advanced math, bookkeeping can be ours . . . We can sell at ball games . . . AND GO TO THE PROM . . . The memories of wild slumber parties . . . sleepless nights studying for U.S. History exams . . . and showing films between games at the invitational tourney, are ours . . . also the expectations of a wonderful Senior year. We have our class rings . . . sweaters . . . good times . . . bad times . . . and we love it all even though it gets pretty tough. Yes, we are Juniors made up of cokes . . . sessions at the drugstores . . . hot rods . . . rock and roll jazz . . . tears and . . . laughter . . . Yep, that's us!

We began an active year . . . paid our class dues, elected class officers, received schedules, and trudged down the hall in our new class sweaters. By now, dates were just "old stuff" to us. We had something else to worry about . . . getting our drivers license. With an eye on the future, we began our project for the year . . . selling auto license plates. We finally recovered from sore throats and tired feet to find that our sales nearly doubled what we expected.

We are the Eighth Grade!!!! Our duties are . . . getting to classes on time, keeping our mouths shut in study hall, and teaching the Seventh Grade how to "win friends and influence people." Our lives are made up of . . . getting out of doing dishes and wearing dirty saddles, cheering at ballgames, and nightly gab-sessions at the Drug Store. We enjoy the fads, fun, and the excitement of being called "typical teens."

Here we are finally, Seventh Graders. No more little kids under our feet . . . only bigger kids stepping on us. We live in constant fear of being late . . . therefore, we run to each class. Our favorite pastimes are . . . picking up papers off the school lawn, (ugh), going to the drugstore, dancing ourselves ragged after each home ball game, and cleaning spilled ink, dirty kleenex, and half-eaten apples out of our lockers.

*"Beware What You Set
Your Heart Upon,
For It Surely Shall Be Yours"*

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

These sage words by Ralph Waldo Emerson, one of America's most brilliant poets, philosophers and essayists, contain two gems of truth for today's high school graduate:

1. Any goal that you honestly set your mind and heart upon can be attained. You can accomplish anything—if you want to bad enough.
2. Choose your goals in life with care, therefore. Be sure you are right before you set out to attain them.

3D PICTURE. BATTLEFIELD OF GETTYSBURG

Cross or converge eyes sufficiently to form a third picture in the open space between the two pictures. Stare at this middle or third picture, completely ignoring the two end pictures. The middle picture will clear into a 3D picture. You must of course have TWO good eyes to be able to do this.
